

Episode 9: Hanging Out with Friends

Kesia shares common words you'll hear when hanging out with friends in the DR, including 3 different ways to party. Listen to find out how to ask someone to go out for drinks or to watch a baseball game.

Vocabulario del episodio (Vocabulary from the Episode) ver pelota - to watch a baseball game (mirar un partido de béisbol; literal: to watch ball)

Los Equipos de Béisbol de la República Dominicana (Dominican Baseball Teams)

- Las Águilas Cibaeñas - The Cibao Eagles baseball team from the northern region of the country
- Los Tigres de Licey - The Licey Tigers baseball team from the capital
- Los Leones del Escogido - The Escogido Lions baseball team that has won 16 national championships
- Los Toros del Este - The Bulls from the East baseball team from La Romana
- Las Estrellas Orientales - The Eastern Stars baseball team from the eastern region

ir a tomar - to go out for a drink (literal: to go to drink) ven a tomar / ven a beber - come by for a drink bonche - a really nice party with music, entertainment, and drinks chercha - a get together with close friends and family coro - an intimate get together with your closest friends (literal: chorus)

colmado - corner store

colmadón - a corner store with loud music and alcoholic drinks

