Culpa al Corazón (Blame the Heart) by Prince Royce

FIRST VERSE

¿Qué culpa tengo yo mi amor de enamorarme de ti?
How am I to blame, my love, for falling in love with you?

de pasarme tantas noches of spending so many nights

sin poder casi dormir
unable to hardly sleep

Tal vez pienses que estoy loco Maybe you think I am crazy

te confirmo que es así I admit to you that it's true es el brillo de tus ojos, mami It's the sparkle in your eyes, baby lo que me pone a sufrir that makes me suffer

CHORUS

Y por mis llamadas de madrugada
And for my late night calls

culpa el corazón blame the heart

por mil palabras desesperadas because of a thousand desperate words no pienses que soy yo don't think that I am

DominicanSpanish101

No me culpes a mí... don't blame me...

Soy solo una marioneta, sin control de sus sentidos I'm just a puppet, with no control of its senses no me culpes a mí, mami... don't blame me, mami

yo soy solo un pasajero con destino ser feliz, junto a ti I'm just a passenger destined to be happy, next to you

Junto a ti, baby...
Next to you, baby

SECOND VERSE

Le he contado mi tristeza
I have told my sorrows

a un par de copas de ron to a couple of rum glasses

y me alivia solo un poco mami and it relieves me just a little, mami pero no como tu amor but not like your love

CHORUS REPEATS (2X)
